The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against applicants and co-applicants on the basis of sex, race, national origin, religion, marital status, age or public assistance. The federal agency which administers compliance with this law is the Federal Trade Commissions, Washington, D.C. The Policy of A.R. Sandri, Inc. is: A. No applicant may be denied credit because of the applicant's sex, race, national origin, religion, marital status, age or public assistance. B. The applicant may request the reason for rejection of his or her application for credit. C. No person needs to reapply for credit solely because of a change in name, marital status, age, or job status unless the change has caused deterioration in the person's financial position. D. A person may apply for credit in any name permitted by law that he or she regularly uses and is generally known by, so long as no fraud is intended thereby.
